

Faculty of Education and Psychology

Faculty History

Along with the foundation of Alzahra University in 1965, the Department of Psychology was established as one of the first fields of study in 1964, with three areas of Counseling and Advising, Psychology of Exceptional children and Industrial Psychology.

After the Cultural Revolution in Iran, this department placed in the Faculty of Literature, Theology and Humanities and until 1993, with the Library and Information Science and Education Science departments were considered the subordinate units of that Faculty. In 1993, Faculty of Education and Psychology was founded and began offering programs as an independent unit.
